

ABARES provides research and evidence-based economic advice on agricultural trade and cross-border issues to government, the Australian community and other stakeholders. Our work addresses medium to longer term issues, with implications for policy priorities.

ABARES uses a variety of tools to provide research and trade-related advice. See more about our trade-related methodologies and model documentation.

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/abares/research-topics/trade>