

Resources

AHC member websites

AHC observer websites

Other websites

- AHC Communique: published after each twice-yearly face-to-face meeting.
- Animalplan 2022 to 2027: Australia's National Action Plan for Terrestrial Agricultural Animal Health.
- Antimicrobial resistance: Information about reducing the spread of antimicrobial resistance.
- AUSVETPLAN manuals: The nationally agreed approach for the response to emergency animal disease (EAD) incidents in Australia.
- Consultative Committee on Emergency Animal Diseases \(CCEAD\): A coordinating body providing the technical link between industry and Australian, state and territory governments for decision-making during animal health emergencies.
- Farm biosecurity: Information about on-farm biosecurity measures, which help prevent both endemic and exotic diseases, pests and weeds from entering and becoming established on farms.
- National Biosecurity Training Hub: A centralised platform for biosecurity training to support biosecurity preparedness, response and recovery.
- Outbreak website: Up-to-date information on emergency responses to animal, marine and plant pest and disease incursions that affect Australia's agriculture industries and environment.
- Public awareness and education: Various public awareness and education resources.
- World Organisation for Animal Health \(WOAH\): The intergovernmental organisation responsible for improving animal health worldwide. This site provides up-to-date information on animal health events reported by members.

Contact us

EAD hotline: 1800 675 888

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/agriculture-land/animal/health/committees/ahc/resources>