

Not all live animals and reproductive materials are permitted to be imported into Australia; the pest or disease risks associated with their importation may be considered too great.

The Biosecurity Import Conditions system \(BICON\) provides the import conditions for all permitted live animal and reproductive material imports.

The list below provides additional information for imports of live animals and reproductive material.

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/animal/importing-animals>