

An offshore inspection is not a pre-clearance of biosecurity, but is designed to significantly minimise the biosecurity clearance requirements on arrival in Australia. Military equipment will still be subject to biosecurity intervention on arrival and a verification inspection will be conducted to ensure the goods arrive in a condition free from biosecurity risk material.

Please contact the Machinery and Military Team to discuss the application forms and guidelines relating to offshore inspections of military equipment.

Machinery and Military Team

Phone: +61 7 3246 8755

Email: Military

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/biosecurity-trade/aircraft-vessels-military/military/offshore-inspections>