

Industry notices are released to notify egg export industry participants of any changes to export trade conditions, including:

- legislation
- market access
- operational requirements.

If you export or process eggs and egg products, you are responsible for making sure you meet all current importing and market access requirements.

Email us your queries about exporting egg and egg products from Australia.

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/biosecurity-trade/export/controlled-goods/eggs/egg-notices>