

Feedlots must be EUCAS accredited if they want to produce animals that can be exported as meat to the EU. A feedlot is a registered business covered by a single Property Identification Code (PIC) under State or Territory legislation where cattle are confined and fed high-energy rations to maximise their growth prior to slaughter. Feedlots may contain segregated EUCAS and non-EUCAS cattle.

The following documents relate to EUCAS accreditation for feedlots:

European Union Cattle Accreditation Scheme Feedlot Rules

Download

- European Union Cattle Accreditation Scheme Feedlot Rules \(PDF 363 KB\)
- European Union Cattle Accreditation Scheme Feedlot Rules \(DOCX 128 KB\)

If you have difficulty accessing these files, contact us for help.

Application for EUCAS accreditation of feedlots

Download

If you have difficulty accessing these files, contact us for help.

Notification of withdrawal of a property from EUCAS accreditation

Download

If you have difficulty accessing these files, contact us for help.

Current manager contact details update

Download

If you have difficulty accessing these files, contact us for help.

Statutory declaration form

Download

If you have difficulty accessing these files, contact us for help.

List of Accredited Feedlots

Download

If you have difficulty accessing these files, contact us for help.

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/biosecurity-trade/export/controlled-goods/meat/elmer-3/eucas/feedlots>