

The below tables outlines in which calendar year the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP-11) provides a more favourable tariff-rate than the Japan-Australia Economic Partnership Agreement (JAEPA) for specific products.

Edible Bovine Offal

Product	Year
Fresh tongues and internal organs	30 December 2018
Frozen tongues and internal organs (excluding livers)	30 December 2018
Fresh and frozen cheek and head meat	1 April 2023
All remaining bovine offal products, fresh and frozen	1 April 2024

Pork

Product

As the tariff rates for pork vary depending on the product's value, the better tariff rate could vary on a case by case basis. For this reason the department will continue to issue JAEPA certificates for pork if they are requested.

Poultry

Product	Year
Whole chicken fresh or chilled	30 December 2018
All other poultry excluding frozen bone in legs	1 April 2019
Frozen bone in legs	1 April 2020

Prepared and Preserved Meats 1

Product	Year
Sausages and other prepared meats	1 April 2019
Prepared or preserved edible liver	1 April 2021

Prepared and Preserved Meats 2

Product	Year
Jerky & Meat Pies	1 April 2021
Burgers, Meatballs, & Marinated Meats	1 April 2024
Various other products ranging from -	2020 – 2024

Orange Juice

Product	Year
----------------	-------------

All orange juice	1 April 2023
------------------	--------------

Apple Juice

Product

Apple Juice will remain better value under JAEPA
--

Honey

Product

Honey will remain better value under JAEPA
--

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/biosecurity-trade/export/from-australia/quota/japan-quotas/tpp-changes>