

Live pigeons can currently be imported into Australia from selected department approved countries only. To bring live pigeons to Australia, they must meet all of the department's import conditions prior to export.

The Biosecurity Import Conditions system \(BICON\) provides the import conditions for all permitted live pigeon imports.

The information below relates to the importation of live pigeons into Australia.

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/biosecurity-trade/import/goods/live-animals/live-pigeons>