

Search for forms

Importing into AustraliaThe importation of some products is, by law, subject to biosecurity import conditions. Some products are not permitted entry while other products are only allowed into Australia subject to meeting import conditions that mitigate the biosecurity risk. This may include a...

- Last modified

Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, November 2022 If you are planning to import nursery stock (live plants) into mainland Australia or an Australian External Territory, you must complete the Import notification – nursery stock form and email or fax it to the Department of...

- Last modified

Publication detailsDepartment of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry - February 2026You are required to email the completed form to the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry no later than one week prior to the fertile eggs' arrival.Notice of intent to import fertile eggsDownload PDF -...

- Last modified

There are significant biosecurity risks associated with the use of imported biological goods in non-laboratory animals, such as chickens, sheep and cattle.Non-laboratory animals, as defined by the department, are all animal species other than guinea pigs, hamsters, mice, rabbits, rodents and micro...

- Last modified

Publication detailsDepartment of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, March 2026.The completed form and relevant attachments must be emailed to the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry regional office no later than 3 working days prior to horse arrival.Regional office contact...

- Last modified

The Application to Import Live Fish and Drosophila consists of the following sections: [expand all]
Importer details Enter the name, street address, telephone number, fax number and email address of the person or organisation importing the goods into Australia. In the space provided, enter...

- Last modified

The Department of Agriculture and Water Resources released a draft report for the non-regulated analysis of existing policy for fresh strawberry fruit from the Republic of Korea on 25 August 2016....

- Last modified

Publication details Department of Agriculture and Water Resources, July 2017. Prawn consignments that were imported prior to the suspension on 9 January 2017 are subject to certain biosecurity...

- Last modified

Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, December 2021 If you would like to import goods not covered in the Goods Determination, you must apply for an import permit. The permit must be granted before your goods leave the Australian mainland. To apply for an import permit, you can access the...

- Last modified

Publication details Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, November 2022 For exporters of non-prescribed goods where the importing country requires government certification. Exporters may apply for a government certificate as per section 65 the Export Control Act 2020. All...

- Last modified

Source: https://www.agriculture.gov.au/import/import_forms