

The department provides a range of online services and systems designed to assist prospective importers in understanding and ensuring compliance with Australian biosecurity importing conditions and requirements. These systems and services help facilitate the importation of goods and conveyances of biosecurity concern into Australian territory, provided that the importer ensures the goods and/or conveyances meet Australian biosecurity importing conditions and any other government requirements as appropriate.

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/biosecurity-trade/import/online-services>