

1800 647 531 is the freecall number for clients who need to make a payment and who cannot pay online.

Clients can use this service to obtain copies of invoices, discuss any difficulties experienced in paying accounts and have other queries related to transactions appearing on client statements or invoices answered by the enquiries team.

Queries in relation to the operational aspects of the services provided should be directed to the relevant program area.

This freecall service is available between 8:30am and 5:00pm weekdays.

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/about/contact/phone/accounts-receivable>