The Regulatory Practice Statement outlines how we approach our regulatory responsibilities.

The work we do plays a critical role in managing and enhancing Australia's agriculture, unique environment, heritage and water resources.

The statement outlines:

- our regulatory responsibilities
- what stakeholders and the community can expect of us
- a set of regulatory practice principles which guide our regulatory behaviours and activities.

It demonstrates our commitment to:

- improving our business systems and tools
- investing in our people
- making it easier for businesses and regulated entities to understand and comply with our regulations.
