

All news

Explore all our news and media items. Use filters to find items that interest you.

- News
- Biosecurity

As Australia marks National Biosecurity Week, businesses are being encouraged to play their part in protecting the nation from pests, diseases and...

4 new detector dogs. One very important job.

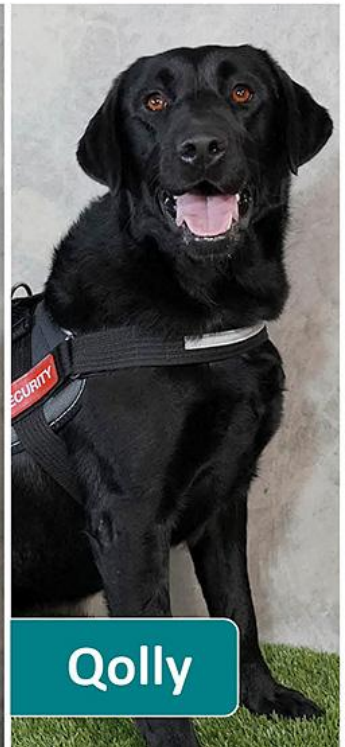

April

Misty

Astra

Qolly

- News
- Biosecurity

They may be new to the job, but Australia's newest biosecurity detector dogs are already making their mark.

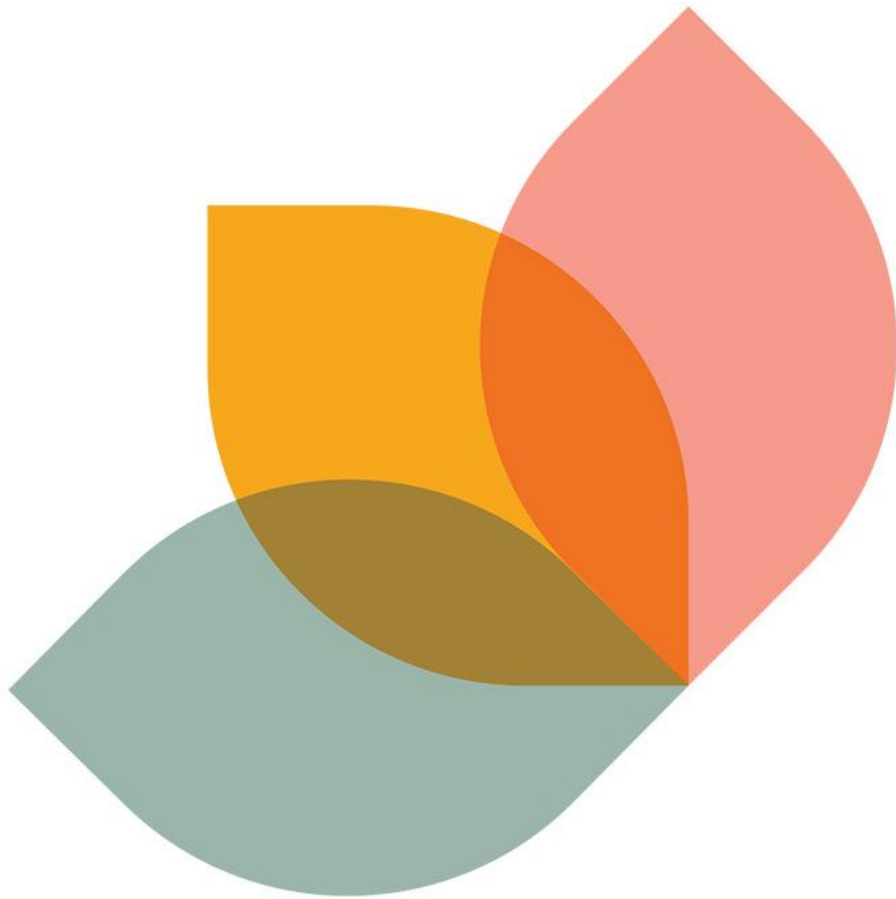

- Media release
- Biosecurity

Prominent national landmarks will be illuminated blue to launch National Biosecurity Week 2026, shining a spotlight on our shared responsibility to...

- News
- Biosecurity

A new video developed for National Biosecurity Week (24–30 August) is shining a spotlight on Australia's biosecurity system and the people,...

- Statement
- Biosecurity

Updates from Australia's Chief Veterinary Officer.

- News
- Imports

Importers with a proven track record of meeting Australia's biosecurity requirements can benefit from faster clearance times and fewer inspections...

- News
- Biosecurity

From a young age, Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry Senior Entomologist Dr Mike Elias loved insects.

- News
- Animals

The Christmas Island blue-tailed skink is back in the wild and being celebrated as a major conservation milestone thanks to years of planning and...

- News
- International

Australia has helped shape a range of new and updated international food standards, including over 300 new and updated standards, at the 49th Session...

- News
- Biosecurity

Australia's newest international airport, Western Sydney International (Nancy-Bird Walton) Airport (WSI), officially opened its cargo precinct and...

- News
- Biosecurity

People operating boats and ships travelling to Australia need to be aware of new reporting rules that came into effect on 18 June 2026.

- News
- Live animal exports

This month, from 7-10 July, I attended LambEx26, in Adelaide and I can understand why it is seen as the world's premier sheep and lamb conference

- News
- Biosecurity

The exotic mosquito species Asian tiger mosquito (Aedes albopictus) was detected in a surveillance trap at an Approved Arrangement facility near the...

Photo credit: Department of Defence ©Commonwealth of Australia

- News
- Biosecurity

Biosecurity officers are playing a vital role in supporting Exercise Pitch Black, one of the Royal Australian Air Force's largest multinational...

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/about/news/all?page=0>