

All news

Explore all our news and media items. Use filters to find items that interest you.

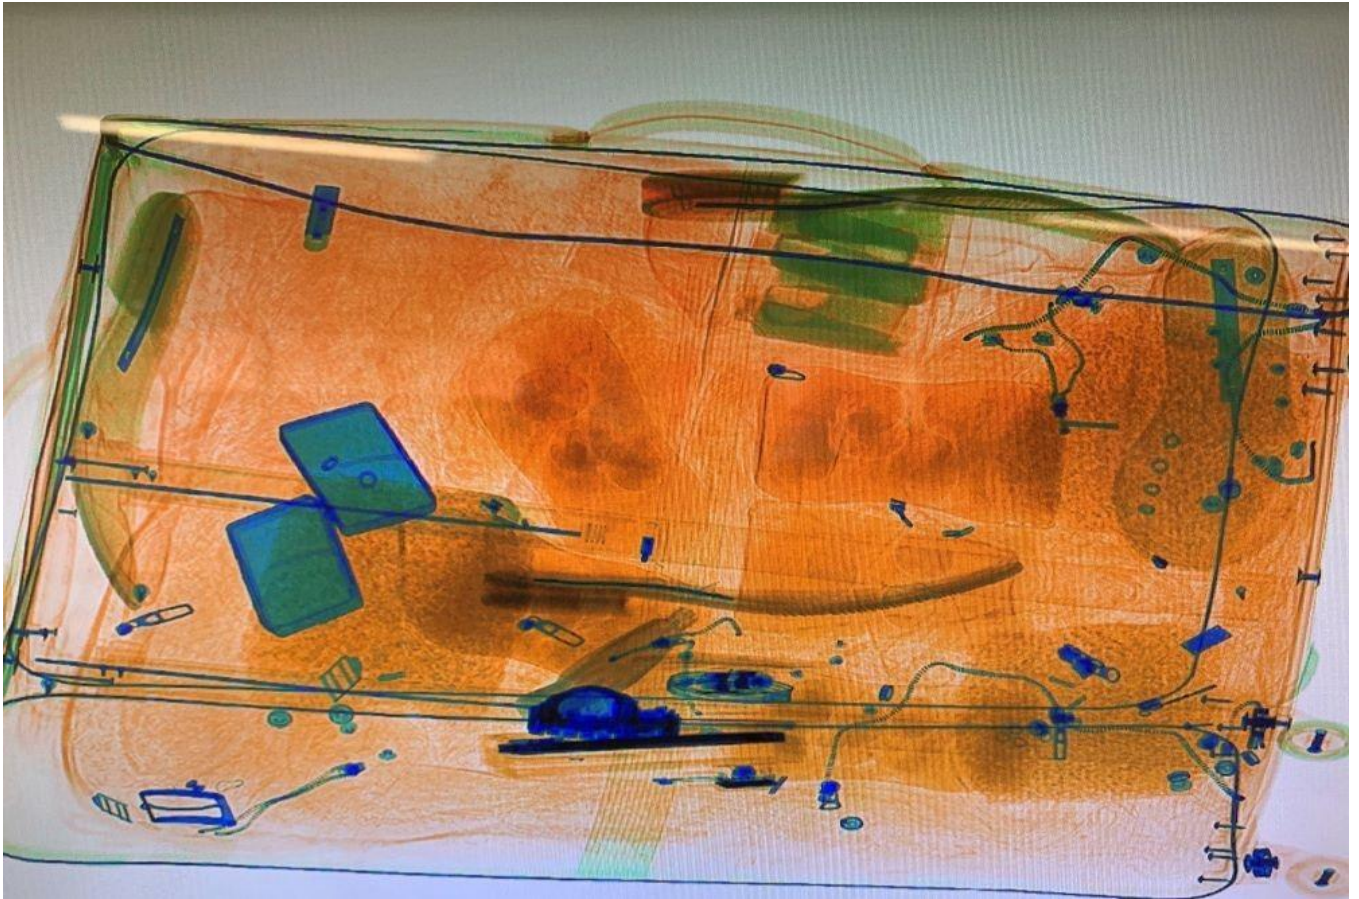

- Case study
- Drought

Drought in South Australia has placed sustained pressure on farm businesses, including livestock producers.

- Media release
- Agriculture

The pace of growth in Australian broadacre farmland prices is moderating across most farmland types, according to the latest ABARES data.

- News
- Biosecurity

Over the past 5 years, biosecurity officers at the border have intercepted 22 detections of illegally hidden hatching eggs. In recent months the rate...

- Media release
- Trade

Australia and the European Union have concluded negotiations to finalise a new wine agreement that promises to cut red tape, improve market access,...

- Newsletter
- Live animal exports

March has been a busy month, with Wagin Woolorama and grant information sessions held across WA, alongside the rollout of Round 1 grant outcomes for...

- News
- Biosecurity

The department is closely monitoring the conflict in the Middle East region.

- News
- Agriculture

Applications for our graduate development program are now open and we're seeking graduates across diverse disciplines to join us in 2027.

- Case study
- Animals

The CSIRO Giant Oystercracker Dart fish project represents a welfare-focused development for Australia's aquaculture industry.

- Media release
- ABARES

Lending to the farm sector has increased by 5% in real terms, to $142.5 billion, according to the latest data.

Discover the Junior Biosecurity Officer program

- Newsletter
- Biosecurity

The Junior Biosecurity Officer program has released a fresh set of free teaching resources for Term 2 and beyond.

- News
- Animals

Australia's strong biosecurity system helps protect agricultural industries worth billions of dollars in trade each year.

- Newsletter
- Biosecurity

General surveillance programs are essential initiatives that rely on people from all walks of life to detect and report pests, weeds, and diseases.

- Media release
- International

This year's International Women's Day (IWD) occurs in the International Year of the Woman Farmer, so it's an excellent opportunity to consider the...

- Media release
- ABARES

Australian agriculture is set to reach a record $101.4 billion in gross production value in 2025-26 before easing in 2026-27, with both prices and...

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/about/news/all?page=3>