

About this response

In December 2019, the Government established the independent National Agricultural Labour Advisory Committee. The Committee developed the National Agricultural Workforce Strategy: learning to excel.

The Strategy was released in March 2021 and included 37 recommendations.

The Australian Government has considered the recommendations of the Committee's report and has provided this response.

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/about/reporting/obligations/government-responses/building-the-agricultural-workforce-of-the-future>