

The Australian Government Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry has overall responsibility for representing Australia's interests in international and regional forums and processes where forestry matters are discussed. These include:

Other international forums

The department also provides policy advice on forestry matters to other forums and activities which are the responsibility of other Australian Government agencies, such as the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, the Australian Centre for International Agricultural Research, CSIRO, and the Department of Climate Change, Energy, the Environment and Water. These include:

- Trade forums such as the World Trade Organization
- The United Nations Commission on Sustainable Development
- The World Conservation Union the (International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources)
- The Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora \(CITES\)
- United Nations Environment Programme
- United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity

Source: <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/agriculture-land/forestry/international/forums>