

The Central Highlands Regional Forest Agreement (RFA) was one of five RFAs in Victoria. It was terminated on 31 December 2024 and is no longer in force. The Australian and Victorian Governments originally signed the Central Highlands RFA on 27 March 1998, establishing the framework for the sustainable management of the forests in the Central Highlands RFA region.

The Central Highlands RFA was varied on 30 March 2020 with an extension until 30 June 2030.

The updated Central Highlands Land Tenure and Zoning Map \(December 2019\) identified the extent of the comprehensive, adequate and representative reserve system in the Central Highlands RFA region.

The 1998 Central Highlands RFA

The Australian and Victorian governments signed the original Central Highlands RFA on 27 March 1998. The agreement was for a duration of 20 years and an interim extension was signed to align expiry of the Central Highlands RFA with that of other Victorian RFAs on 31 March 2020.

2018 variations to the East Gippsland, Central Highlands and North East RFAs

On 26 March 2018, the Australian and Victorian Governments extended the timeframe of three Victorian RFAs - the East Gippsland, Central Highlands and North East - to 31 March 2020.

This lined up the expiry dates for all five Victorian RFAs and allowed the governments to negotiate modernised, extended agreements for all five RFAs.

The variation to the Central Highlands RFA is available below. The variations to the East Gippsland and North East RFAs can be accessed from their respective pages at the following:
